

SUFFRAGE MEASURE FAILS IN SENATE

Is First Important Reverse President Wilson Has Sustained.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The Senate refused to grant the request of the President that the woman suffrage resolution be passed as a war measure.

After five days of bitter debate, of corridor conferences and cloak room negotiations, the Susan B. Anthony federal amendment resolution enacted by the House last January received on the final roll call two votes less than the necessary two-thirds majority. Fifty-four senators were recorded for it and thirty against it, with twelve absent and paired.

Before the vote was announced, Senator Jones, of New Mexico, chairman of the woman suffrage committee, to comply with parliamentary requirements, changed his vote from the affirmative to the negative, and moved that the Senate reconsider. This made the final official record 52 to 31 and left the resolution technically pending on the Senate calendar in position for further consideration planned after the November elections which suffragists hope to muster the requisite number of votes.

President Wilson's personal address to the senators yesterday supplemented by letters today to several Democratic senators opposed to the resolution did not change a single vote, although in the final debate some senators asserted that defeat of the resolution would mean repudiation of the executive. Including the absent and paired senators, the roll call showed that the Senate lineup of 62 to 34 on the resolution remained virtually unchanged from the beginning of the fight last Thursday.

Administration leaders admitted that the vote was the first important reverse President Wilson has met in advocacy of what he has declared to be essential war measures.

The official record of the vote yesterday after Chairman Jones' change follows:

WEST VIRGINIA WAR WORK

WEST VIRGINIA COUNCIL OF DEFENSE.

The Fourth Liberty Loan is now on and West Virginians in every community are watching for "Zero Day" which will be the day on which their community or their county goes over the top with its quota. It is expected that some counties will make it over by the time this is in print. Some expect to make the quota by the tenth day of the campaign and some by the fifteenth day. It is almost certain that every county in West Virginia will reach its apportionment of Liberty bonds before the campaign ends on October 19. Governor Cornwell, who made an address at the opening of the campaign in Marion county, said that he did not have the remotest doubt that West Virginia would oversubscribe its quota. Former Governor MacCordle, chairman of the Fourth Liberty Loan state organization, predicted that the state would go over with flying colors in a speech made at Gladesburg early in the campaign.

Loyal citizens everywhere admit that the Fourth Liberty Loan is a job to be put over and since that is the consensus of opinion there is no excuse for tardiness in any community and those citizens who have not already subscribed should do so at once that the full quota may be raised as early as possible.

Following the Fourth Liberty Loan is to come another drive and one which will do West Virginia a million dollars worth of good in addition to the $937,750 that will be donated to seven deserving war charities. The chief object of bringing about one big drive in this instance is to avoid multiplicity of smaller drives, each for its own separate end, but the fact that such a course will necessitate one mighty effort, with all the money going into a common fund, is certain to bring the people generally into relations which would have seemed strange before the war. Under the plan suggested by President Wilson and endorsed by Governor Cornwell and the State Council of Defense as far as West Virginia is concerned the nation will raise $170,500,000 which will be divided as follows:

National War Work Council
National Catholic War Council
National Council Y. W. C. A.
War Camp Community Service
Jewish Welfare Board
Salvation Army
American Library Association

National Catholic War Council	$100,000,000
National Council Y. W. C. A.	30,000,000
War Camp Community Service	15,000,000
Jewish Welfare Board	15,000,000
Salvation Army	3,500,000
American Library Association	3,500,000

All funds collected are to be distributed on a pro rata basis among the seven societies participating in the campaign and in every instance the money is to be used for war work either in this country or abroad. That is the funds received will be divided among the participating organizations in such proportion as the total budget of each organization bears to the sum total of the combined budgets. George L. Goodwin, State Director for this campaign, stated at the convention held at Huntington last week that specified or restricted subscriptions shall not be asked for under the memorandum of agreement between the co-operating organizations but if given, shall be credited to the particular organization but such amount is to be a part of the total and not an addition to it.

The restriction on building in West Virginia which comes with the adoption of a resolution by the State Council of Defense calling for a permit from the War Industries Board before even so much as a barn may be constructed in this state during the war is a move to prohibit the erection of all buildings which are not a necessary part of winning the war. It is a step towards the mobilization and concentration of energy and effort towards the one end of bringing the war to a finish. The scarcity of material and its high cost has caused a decline in building but this order puts all construction aside unless it is for the increased production of coal, oil or gas or has the approval of the representative to be named in each county who is expected to act with the advice of the county and community councils of defense.

LOGAN, W. Va., Oct. 1.—Medals for "Industrial Soldiers" are being given coal miners in the Logan field and A. C. Clapperton, general superintendent of the Amherst Coal company at Amherst, wears one and says 416 mine workers connected with that company have a similar decoration.

The medals are given to men doing their full share of work in getting out coal every day in a month. A bronze bar indicates the first month of this arrangement and a silver bar will be given the second month, another bronze bar for the third month, a silver one the fourth month and so on.

Only four men in that company's employ put in as little as 35 hours a week the first month of this arrangement. The car supply was good which provided opportunity for this splendid showing.

How About Your Danger Zone?

YOU'VE got it—every human being is born with it—your large intestine, or colon. It is a large tube—a reservoir or sewer—intended to collect waste matter and remove it from the body.

Plug it up with waste, neglect it, and you're sick on your feet. The waste matter stagnates, undergoes decay, fermentation and germ action. Dangerous poisons are produced, that can easily be absorbed and carried all over the body.

Allow constipation to become established, and you are liable to become definitely and miserably sick—and not on your feet either. You have broken Nature's laws.

Better be kind to her. Keep the danger zone clean, with a regular bowel movement, and Nature will thank you, and pay you back in gold coin—health, good nature, and a feeling of eagerness for your daily task.

A large proportion of almost every form of sickness is caused or made worse by the poisons produced as a result of constipation.

Nujol has the approval of established medical practice, because it does not upset the system as do pills, castor oil and purgative mineral waters, salts, etc. It softens the contents of the colon, making them easy for the intestinal muscles to move at regular hours. Don't fight Nature. Help her. Nujol is health insurance for tens of thousands of American families today. Sold at drug stores everywhere.

Warning:

NUJOL is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. Insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.
